HOLIDAY GREETINGS!

One of the primary roles of an editorial writer and columnist is to provoke thought and stimulate opinion. That being the case, Waco is blessed to have John Young performing those functions for the Tribune-Herald. Often controversial, Young's columns always stir emotional responses among his readers, both those who agree with him and those who don't. John will discuss the role of a newspaper columnist in a community.

John Young

John has been editorial page editor and columnist of the Tribune-Herald since 1984. A Denver, Colo., native, he was editor of the Valley Courier, a small daily in Alamosa, Colo., from 1978 to 1984. His column is carried regularly on the Cox News Service and New York Times News Service.

Command Sergeant Major Lawrence Wilson

Lawrence Wilson was born in Austin, Texas. He entered the Army from Aberdeen, North Carolina in February of 1977.

CSM Wilson attended Basic Combat Training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, followed by Advanced Individual Training as a combat engineer at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.

He has served in leadership positions at every rank of the non-commissioned officer progression. Some of his duty positions include team leader, squad leader, platoon sergeant, operations sergeant, and assignments as first sergeant, engineer battalion CSM.

His awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Army Achievement Medal, the Bronze Star Medal with valor and 1 oak leaf cluster, and numerous ribbons. He was inducted into the USAREUR Sergeant Morales Club in 1984 and is an honorary member of the Sergeant Audie Murphy Club.

Currently CSM Wilson is serving as the Command Sergeant Major for the U. S. Army Operational Test Command, West Fort Hood, Texas. He is married to the former Cathy Williams of Pinebluff, North Carolina. They have four sons: David, Jeremy, Robbie, and Zachary.

Young has won a host of awards including two first-place honors from the National Society of Newspaper Columnists in humor writing, 10 Best of Cox awards in columns and editorial writing and three Katie Awards from the Dallas Press Club. He was a finalist for the National Headliners Award for editorial writing.

John also is board chairman of the Waco History Project.

A 1975 graduate of Colorado State University, John and his wife Becky have two sons, Michael and Robert, six cats and three dogs.

Donna Davis also works at Baylor, in Facilities Management, and is a vocalist for Wilkerson Hatch Bailey Funeral Home. Both ladies are married to Rotarians, Patrick Millar, and Rex Davis of the Northwest Waco Club. Dave Dow has been in Rotary since 1965, currently chairs the Music Committee, and is our song leader. Mike Makowski runs a computer consulting business in Waco along with his wife Donna. He has been a musician all his life, spending over 30 years as accompanist at Central United Methodist Church. Carl Shemburger is our very gifted and wonderfully reliable pianist, who is organist at Woodway First United Methodist Church, and works at Wilkerson Hatch Bailey Funeral Home.

Bring the special person in your life to hear this group perform for us.
