Rotarians, be sure to bring your spouse or significant other to this Valentine's Day musical program. We will be entertained by the wonderfully rich sounds of the Baylor student French horn quartet. The members — Matt Winter, Jarrett Webb, Matt Reynolds, and Andrew Dodson — have been playing as a quartet for some time, and are among the best performing groups at Baylor. Baylor professor of music, Jeff Powers, is their instructor. Whether it's jazz, classical, or in between, the wonderful sounds of four French horns blended together are truly striking. This is a program not to be missed by you or your sweetheart.
